EXFU FindX

EXFU FindX is a non-invasive, FDA-cleared, prescription-only device that provides a safe and effective treatment for muscle activation and strengthening. 4.

EXFU FINDX

EXFU FindX modality offers an unprecedented solution to the muscle category. Controlled and precise energies are delivered uniquely to muscle groups via best-in-class electrical muscle stimulation. The muscles are safely activated without heating the surrounding tissue. Paired with specific pulse durations by muscle group, performance-informed smart training programs and advanced adaptive algorithms, each treatment is fully personalized and mimics a real training session that can build intensity over time. exfu enables effective and comfortable treatment programs regardless of the patients' fitness level, resulting in stronger and more defined muscle appearance.
